CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

The Special Constituency Leadership Award will be given to an outstanding TAFP-member family physician who is or has been a strong advocate for a specific special constituency and/or, as a member of a specific constituency, has served as an outstanding leader in some capacity. The five special constituency categories are: women, minority, new physician, international medical graduate, and LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender).

The nomination packet must include:

- A completed nomination form,
- A typed copy of a current CV, and
- Up to three recommendation letters from the nominator and other supporters.

All nominations and supporting materials must be submitted by May 31, 2022.
